

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding organization that has contributed greatly to one of Missouri's most prosperous communities; and

Whereas, the Cameron Regional Medical Center (CRMC) Ambassador Program in Cameron, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Project of the Year award during a festive "Thank You" Banquet sponsored by the Cameron Community Betterment Committee to be held May 3, 2003; and

Whereas, with the construction of a new facility and the transition from Cameron Community Hospital to Cameron Regional Medical Center, a new concept of patient care and customer service was realized through the Ambassador Program; and

Whereas, shortly before the opening of the Replacement Facility in August of 2002, Karen Bezet was named Coordinator of the Ambassador Program and volunteers were recruited from the four-county area; and

Whereas, each "Ambassador" volunteer underwent a full day of training and orientation concerning the information desk at the main entrance of the new hospital; and

Whereas, since its inception, the Ambassador Program has been blessed with approximately fifty volunteers from the first three induction sessions and hopes that phase four of the project will bring an additional twenty volunteers; and

Whereas, not only do Ambassadors assist patients and their families, they also help hospital staff with various tasks, including copying, folding, stuffing envelopes, screening visitors, and watering plants; and

Whereas, Ambassadors have given more than 3,900 hours to the hospital through the Ambassador Program and are greatly appreciated by the entire staff of the CRMC:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to all those dedicated individuals affiliated with the CRMC Ambassador Program at this proud moment of well-deserved recognition, and in wishing them only the very best as they continue to provide the Cameron community with unwavering support and generosity; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Cameron Regional Medical Center Ambassador Program.
